John goes to a new school

John wakes up at 7am because he must be at school by 8:00 am but school doesn't start until 8:30 am.

He has a shower and brushes his teeth. Then he has breakfast and puts on his clothes.

John's mother tells him to brush his teeth and comb his hair.

'But I have already brushed my teeth', says John.

'Well, you must learn to brush your teeth after breakfast and not before breakfast' says his mother. John's mother is a dentist and she wants John to take good care of his teeth. She tells him that grandma has no teeth now because she didn't brush her teeth every day when she was young.

'OK, I will brush them again', John says.

John feels happy that he is going to a new school but he also feels nervous. He doesn't have many new friends at the new school and he will miss his old friends. John's best friend Rafael will not go to the same school now and that makes John feel a little sad.

'Don't worry, John', says his father. 'You can still visit your old friends and I'm sure you will make many new friends in your new school'.

At 7:30 the bus arrives to take John to school. He says goodbye to his mother and father who help him put on his coat and hat because the weather outside is cold today. 'Don't forget to take your new football boots with you', says his mother.
